

Fact and Fiction

Zac's Cap

What do we know about  ?

- Frogs begin their lives as eggs.
- Next they become tadpoles and live in the water.
- They grow legs and lose their tails when they become froglets.
- When they become frogs, they live on land and in the water.
- Their special skin helps them drink and breathe.

What do we know about  ?

- Zac lives by a pond.
- Zac wears a cap.
- Zac is green.
- Dad and the fat cat are Zac's pals.

How are  and  the same?

- A real frog and Zac both live in a similar habitat, which is in water that is close to land.
- The real frog and Zac are both green.