

What do we know about  ?

- Hens lay eggs. Roosters are the fathers.
- Inside the egg is food for the baby chick.
- A baby chick has soft, fluffy feathers called down.
- When a chick grows up, it looks like its parents.
- There are more chickens in the world than people, with about 150 different breeds.

What do we know about  ?

- The hens sat on the egg.
- Mel hatched from the hen's egg.
- Mel is the hen's chick.

How are  and  the same?

- Real hens and the hens in the story both sit on an egg.
- A hen's chick comes from an egg in real life and in the story.