

What do we know about  ?

- Spiders are arachnids with eight legs and fangs.
- Spiders spin silk that comes out of their bodies to build webs.
- Webs trap insects for food. Webs can also protect eggs that mother spiders lay.
- Spiders help farmers by eating insects that harm crops.

What do we know about  ?

- Jen lives in her web in the hens' well.
- When the hens splash, Jen's web gets wet.
- Jen does not like when the bugs in her web get wet.
- Jen's web is moved so that she can eat dry bugs.

How are  and  the same?

- Real spiders and Jen build webs.
- Real spiders and Jen catch bugs in their webs.
- Real spiders and Jen eat bugs.